

COUNCIL ON PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT LECTURE

Presented by: The Innocence Project and Students for Public Interest Law

Sponsored by: barbri[®]
BAR REVIEW

Exoneree, Michael Austin, Speaks Out

There will be a presentation on his wrongful conviction involving a presentation by Michael Austin and his attorney Larry Nathans:

Wednesday March 2nd at 4:30pm
in the Slowinski Courtroom
CUA Columbus School of Law

Mr. Michael Austin spent 27 years incarcerated for a crime he did not commit because of police misconduct and an ineffective lawyer. Come hear him speak about his ordeal.

Refreshments will be provided.

Attendance at this lecture will fulfill an elective ethics requirement. Please remember to sign in to receive credit. You can check your current ethics requirement status on Cardinal Students or by contacting Eric Kingsepp at 202 319-5491.